METHODIST CHURCH NEWS.

A few sentences from the sermon last Sunday on the Stewardship of Personality. Personality is God's greatest Gift. It is the most powerful force in the world. It is the most tremendous thing of which we are stewards.

The whole person is involved in living the Christian life. Experience teaches us the unity of life. Your personality is involved in all that you do and say. There is a marvelous intimacy between the physical and the psychical,—body and mind.
Every human action involves the complementary functioning of both body and mind.

The man who prepares himself for his life work is the one who will to prepare. The one who lives the Christian life is the one who will to do so. The things that go into the development of a Christian personality are Prayer, Bible study, the Church. The neglect of these means a crippled personality. "All of every age and station in life stand in need of the grace that these alone supply."

"The person who ignores, neglects or despises the Church sins against himself, and handicaps his own personality. Man is a religious being;
if he starves and stunts his religious nature, he cannot develop to his capacity. The Church is the supreme character-making institution in the world. It presents the highest ideals of life. It stands for the noblest thinking and greatest sacrificial giving. It is the world's greatest power for human progress. It makes crime difficult and virtue easy. It is the avenue which men, women and children walk up the Heavenly heights."

Next Sunday there will be the third series in Stewardship, which will be Stewardship of Service, what we do.

If you are not going to Sunday school, start now. It is high time to begin.

Sunday night, the weather permitting, there will be an open air meeting. Worship with us Sunday.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK.

By Edson R. Waite, Shawnee, Oklahoma.

ORVILLE ELDER, PUBLISHER OF THE WASHINGTON
(IOWA) JOURNAL, SAYS:

"The man who has advertising space to sell it and sells it has just begun his job. He must supplement his sale with constructive effort that extends into the place of business of the advertiser and helps that advertiser realize on his space investment."

"If he does not do this he runs a chance of making no future sales to the space customer. The advertising salesman must know his goods and, more than that, he must know his customers problems; his difficulties; his weaknesses; his strong points."

"Unless the advertising salesman has the vision to direct a campaign clear through, he is handicapped. So, advertiser and advertising salesman must team up, and if they do team up—set their wits and their brains to cooperative effort—mountains can be moved and dead bones made to rattle."

"Mr. Merchant: Demand of the advertising salesman that he put himself in your place and from that position build your advertising campaign. If you do this and have the right kind of cooperation,
YOU WILL DISCOVER THAT THE NEWSPAPER IS THE 'POWER
BEHIND THE THRONE'—THE VITAL STIMULANT THAT IS NEEDED IN BOTH GOOD TIMES AND NOT-SO-GOOD TIMES
TO MAKE YOUR POSITION STABLE IN YOUR COMMUNITY."

LET THE ANVIL HERALD "TEAM UP" WITH YOU, MR. MERCHANT.

KOLLMAN-FUSSELMAN.

Miss Jerry Fusselman became the bride of Mr. Emmett E. Kollman in a simple ceremony, Sunday morning, July 12, at six o'clock, in the Baptist parsonage, with Rev. R. W. Merrill reading the impressive marriage lines. The only attendant was Miss Gladys Fusselman, sister of the bride. The bride wore a becoming travel suit of beige flat crepe with matching accessories. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs.
Kollman left by motor for Mexia and Richmond, Texas, where they will visit relatives for a week. The young couple will make their home in Hondo.

The bride is a charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fusselman and is a graduate of Hondo High School.
The groom is the youngest son of Mr.
and Mrs. L. E. Kollman, Sr., and is associated with his brother in the management of Kollman Bros. Red and White Store in Hondo.

The many friends of the young couple wish them happiness and prosperity in their married life.

LADIES' BRIDGE CLUB.

The members of the Ladies' Bridge Club and several guests were deligtfully entertained, Thursday afternoon of last week, with Mrs. Horace Bradley as hostess. There were six tables of bridge.

High score among the members was won by Mrs. Earl Boon, who received a bridge set. Mrs. H. J. Meyer won two linen guest towels for high guest prize. In cutting for consolation prize, Mrs. Alice Reinhart won among the members and Mrs. W. H.
Smith among the guests. Both were presented bon bon dishes.

A delicious salad course was served to about twenty-six guests.

TO PRESENT COMEDY.

Elsewhere in this paper is an announcement of the coming presentation of "Looking Lovely", an hilarious comedy in three acts, by the young people of St. John's Parish.
Tuesday night, July 21, at 8:15
o'clock in the auditorium of Hondo High School. The plot is a clever one and the action will keep you in up-ears from the first act to the last curtain.

Direction is under Misses Josephine Brucks and Nora Karrer, who assure an able performance. Enter-missions between acts will be filled with entertaining instrumental and vocal numbers. Taking part in the comedy are Misses Frances Finger, Anna Leah Brucks, Lucy Davis, Ruby
Rieber, Mary Emma Finger, Lorine
Sauter and Messrs. Jackie Schuehle,
Jack Droitecourt, Lawrence Brucks, Harry Filleman, August Finger and Clarence Haas. Look at announcement for admission prices.

OIL OPERATIONS AGAIN ACTIVE.

Frank A. Brown, the original discoverer of the Ina Oil field, is again interesting himself in the development of Medina County's oil possibilities. Having never lost confidence in Medina County, he has interested a body of lower Rio Grande capitalists in further exploration, and is just completing arrangements for drilling on the Jacob Fohn farm about twelve miles south of Hondo.
It is planned to drill to a depth of 1000 feet, if necessary for striking oil, and as the location is in the natural extension of the same geological formation as that in which the Ina field was found it is reasonable to expect that oil will be struck by at least that depth.

IN MEMORIAM.

The subject of this sketch, Mrs.
Martha Taylor, was born in the State of Miss., 82 years ago, the 25th of July, 1849. She was Miss Martha Brown. The Brown family moved early to Texas, where in 1873 she was married to W. H. Taylor, who preceded his wife to the great beyond only six years ago. To the union there were born nine children, five sons and four daughters, seven of whom still survive. When yet a girl of some fifteen, Martha Brown was led to accept Jesus the Christ, as her personal savior, and united with the Baptist Church. It may be said that religion was a real and vital thing to her, for she lived consistently through all the years, faithful to her confession. On Sunday morning early, July 12th, 1931, the waiting spirit of this good woman quietly left the feeble tired body forever to be with her redeemer. At five-thirty o'clock, Sunday afternoon, the funeral was conducted by her pastor, Rev.
R. W. Merrill, from the home of her son, Mr. Ray Taylor, in Hondo, amid a great throng of sympathetic friends.
To inherit the sacred memory of this good woman, there are left, besides the seven children, 29 grandchildren and 20 great-grand children.

The following children and out-of-town friends attended the funeral services:

Mrs. C. R. Gaines, Hondo, Texas;
Mr. Ray Taylor, Hondo, Texas; Mrs.
John S. Nichols, Tulsa, Oklahoma;
Mrs. J. M. Walker, San Marcos, Texas;
Mr. G. C. Taylor, Plaquemine, La.;
Mr. Gus Brown, (brother), Liberty
Hill, Texas.

Out of town visitors:
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wiede and children, Lockhart, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. George Windrow, San Antonio, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Joe English and family, Kelly Field, Texas; Mr. Geo.
Kellems, San Antonio, Texas.

Blessed are the dead, who die in the Lord; yea, saith the spirit, that they may rest from their labor and their works do follow them."

GEORGE MUENNINK SERIOUSLY HURT.

Mr. George Muennink was struck by an automobile while on the street near the Jones Brothers' corner late Saturday afternoon and painfully injured. His right thigh bone, near the hip joint, received a compacted fracture and his right forearm and hand were severely cut and bruised. The old gentleman, who is in his 74th year, has suffered a great deal of pain since, but yesterday afternoon was resting easier and it is hoped the worst has been passed.

We do job printing.

The case of State vs. Ernest Johnson was transferred from the District Court of Medina County to the District Court of Caldwell County yesterday morning on the court's own motion. This means that the case will be tried at the next term of the District Court at Lockhart.

Upon the reconvening of the Court on Monday, July 13th, from its recess of last week, the trial of Ernest Johnson, jointly indicted with John L.
Green for the murder of Frank Kempf, was begun. The regular jury for the third week and the first special venire was exhausted without securing a single juror.

The court ordered a second venire, consisting of seventy-five men, to appear Wednesday morning. All day Wednesday was spent in examining the veniemen and thirty-six of these one after another disqualified. Concluding that the case had been "prejudged", the court, upon its own motion, on reconvening Thursday morning transferred the case to the District Court of Caldwell County for trial.

This left only a few routine matters for the court to complete before adjournment, and accordingly the special term of Medina County District Court came to its close yesterday afternoon.

DR. AND MRS. C. B. TAYLOR ENTERTAIN.

Dr. and Mrs. O. B. Taylor were hosts to a group of friends, Thursday night when they entertained the members of the Thursday Bridge Club and their husbands with a delightful party. The living room, where four tables for bridge were arranged, was lovely with decorations of Zinnias and fern, and the dining room, where punch was served, also featured the same floral note.

High score prize of a Madeira luncheon cloth was won by Mrs. H. J.
Meyer, and Mr. Horace Bradley was presented a silver key chain for high score among the gentlemen.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs.
L. E. Heath, Dr. and Mrs. W. H.
Smith, Dr. and Mrs. T. B. Knopp, Dr.
and Mrs. H. J. Meyer, Mr. and Mrs.
Horace Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. J. M.
Finger, Mrs. John Becker, Mrs. L. J.
Brucks, Miss Josephine Brucks and Dr. and Mrs. Taylor.

YOU NEED PROTECTION.

The Home Relief Association of Medina County was organized over 11 years ago and had only 37 deaths since it was organized, only two deaths so far this year. The membership is over one thousand and is growing. We are creating a surplus death fund and can pay $1,000.00 death benefit now. You can not invest $5.00 better than for a certificate of membership in this Association. Money is hard to get at this time but you need the protection the Home Relief Association offers to the citizens of Medina County. See someone representing the Association and get in before it is too late.
Today you are well and can join;
tomorrow may bring you an accident or death. Now is the accepted time to join. This means you, so don't delay.

BEAN THRESHING AND CURING PLANT OPENS HERE

Messrs. H. C. Pittman and J. Baylor Bell, well-known business men of Cotulla, and T. W. Benham of New Orleans, representing the South Texas Co., were callers at The News office, Monday, and have a force of men rearranging the south end of the Spivey warehouse for a bean curing and threshing plant. Mr. B. D. Bom-ba, who also operates a threshing machine, will be the buyer. They have made connections with Adams Company and expect to be here permanently, they told The News man. Mr. Benham, the New Orleans man, will travel in the interest of the company, which covers several towns and has headquarters at Cotulla. They announce ready for business from this date. See their advertisement.

START BEAN THRESHER BRISCOE & DRISCOLL

Messrs. Driscoll & Briscoe started their bean thresher this week, at the North Shipping Shed; and have the same connection as last year, with La Rue & Barron, of Athens, where they will be shipped as fast as sufficient quantities are threshed. Mr. Briscoe said that they had furnished the seed for most of the peas and beans in this territory, thought they would lead the market, and hope to handle most of the stuff raised here. With two concerns going, the people could be assured of the best possible prices. Mr. Briscoe says the most of the lands around Athens, Texas, is planted to black-eye peas and their concern have large markets abroad. With the lands now in fine condition to turn under, where there is nothing growing, or stuff is being harvested, there should be a big acreage this next fall in these crops.

YOUNG MAN HAS 65 DESCENDANTS PRESENT.

The children of W. H. H. DuBose gave him a re-union picnic and barbecue, July 5th, at his berry and fruit farm at Black Creek. About 80 people were present, including 17 children and thirty-eight grand children. One of the remarkable things is that Mr. DuBose is under sixty years, with 65 descendants all present and healthy. Not a death has occurred among the children, or grand children. His first wife died in 1913, leaving him with twelve children, six boys and six girls. Later he married again and there are five small children, by his young wife.

The dinner spread in a beautiful, natural grove, in his pasture near the home, was replete in good things to eat, brought by the children, a two-hundred pound calf was nicely barbecued by the boys, and about 100 loaves of bread were purchased for the occasion; but less than half of it was consumed. Good old fashioned lemonade was made in tubs and like everything else was free. A good lot of melons were also cut later in the evening, and choice fruit was served from the orchard. Mrs. Louisa DuBose, of San Antonio, W. H.'s mother, was the honor guest, nearly 80 years old. The editor of the Devine News, a first cousin, was introduced at the beginning of the feast and spoke briefly to the assembled family, who had not all been together before; the older children scattered after the death of their mother, 18 years ago; since which time the younger set had come into the family. The father wept with joy, as the speaker spoke of the blessings of God upon the large family, and suggested that there might not be another like this "till all are rounded up in glory, bye and bye." A regular photographer could not be had, but kodakers were busy taking many pictures of various groups.

The children present were: Mr. and Mrs. Leslie DuBose, and son of San Antonio, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Carroll and six children, from Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. DuBose and two children, from San Antonio, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence DuBose and five children, of Pearsall; Mr. and Mrs. Gibson Carroll, and six children; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Carroll, and son; Mr. and Mrs. Preston DuBose and son; Mr. and Mrs. Harrison DuBose, and son; Mrs. Richard Ketchum, and son; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hassell, and son, Bryan; and Miss Esther DuBose, all of San Antonio.

The younger children at home with Mr. and Mrs. DuBose are: Clyde, Marcus, Arthur, Burl, Vida Bell and Darrel.

MORE FORD TRUCKS.

The United States Post Office Department today placed an order with the Washington Branch of the Ford Motor Company for 1,500 motor truck chassis, of which 500 will be ½ ton carrying capacity and 1,000 of 1-½ tons carrying capacity. The purchase of the motor equipment was the largest made by a government department since the war. With this order Ford sales to the Post Office Department during recent years reached a total of 2,900 units.

The purchase marked another step in the Department's program of building up its fleet of several thousand trucks and also to replace some of the surplus trucks turned over to the Post Office Department by the Army at the close of the war.

Deliveries are to start immediately and continue as rapidly as the bodies contracted for are ready for installation. The completed trucks will then be distributed to some 60 cities throughout the United States.

The order was placed with the Ford company after an exhaustive test conducted by the Department with the cooperation of the Bureau of Standards. The tests were under the supervision of W. A. Jacobs, automotive engineer of the Bureau of Standards, and William Wolma of Chicago and Morris Carrier of Brooklyn, motor vehicle engineers of the Post Office Department.

Mrs. Alfred Schweers entertained the W. M. S. Tuesday afternoon in their monthly social meeting. The time was spent in pleasant conversation and planning for quilts to be made by the members, as they do each year; patterns were selected and cut, each member to make two squares. The quilts that were made last year were sent to the San Antonio Mission Training School.

Though the weather was very threatening, twelve members enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Schweers. A delightful watermelon feast was served in the beautiful shaded patio surrounded by a tall green hedge and adorned with pot plants. Mrs. J. R. Chancey and Miss Bertha Newton, joint hostesses, assisted Mrs. Alfred Schweers in serving.

Those present were Mesdames T. McClaugherty, J. S. Fly, J. A. Horger, T. C. Barnes, D. H. Fly, J. G. Newton, O. A. Fly, Arthur Brucks and children, J. R. Chancey, A. H. Schweers, Misses Lora King and Bertha Newton.

1350 KILLED—50 WOUNDED.

Here is the fly-by-fly report on the fate of fourteen hundred blood-thirsty, cow-torturing flies that went down with a single application of Dr. Hess Fly Spray.

The doors and windows of a fly-tight building were closed. It was then thoroughly sprayed with Dr. Hess Fly Spray in the manner that any dairyman would spray his barn. All flies, living and dead, were counted. Out of a total of fourteen hundred flies, only fifty survived the fumes.

Many such tests were made at the Research Farm of Dr. Hess & Clark. Over nine thousand flies were actually counted. Out of all these tests Dr. Hess Fly Spray proved itself 92 per cent efficient as a fly killer.

Still more important than its killing properties is the ability of Dr. Hess Fly Spray to protect cows from fly torment in the pasture. Cows sprayed with it in the morning are practically free from flies all day long, and this means something to the dairyman. It means he can avoid a milk slump at fly-time.

Use Dr. Hess Fly Spray yourself this summer. Spray the cows in the barn at the morning milking. Spray the barn before bringing them in, in the evening. You'll find flies are no longer one of your problems. See your local Dr. Hess dealer about Fly Spray. Either do that or write direct to Dr. Hess & Clark, Inc., Adland, Ohio. Dr. Hess Fly Spray kills flies in the stable—protects cows in the pasture.

A RABBIT STORY.

A story that would make a good Ripley "Believe It or Not" which beats the biggest "fish story" ever told and yet is true is that of a rabbit's leap through glass, to escape alive and without apparent injury.

While riding through the Woolly's pasture, Saturday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Noel Woolly and children and Miss Virginia Fusselman were astonished to see a large jack rabbit hop upon the hood of the car, pause an instant and then leap through the windshield, breaking it and shattering glass over them. Mr. Woolly stopped the car and on opening the door the rabbit, with no apparent injuries very nonchalantly hopped from the car and sped across the pasture.

Mr. Woolly and Miss Virginia sustained several minor cuts, and with of Mercedes, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Kimney and daughters, Janet and Evelyn, and Miss Lillian Schroeder astonished leap through glass.

CALIFORNIA BOY KILLED.

SABINAL, Tex., July 13.—The Sabinal Hustlers successfully repulsed the invasion of the runners up, the D'Hanis Pirates, by taking a one run lead in the first inning, on hits by Giffin and Thornberry. This lead was held throughout the game and the locals finished on the big end of a 4 to 2 score, pulling away to a two and one-half game lead.

The win gave the locals 2 to 3 games with D'Hanis for the season. Thornberry pitched a strong game, holding the invaders to 5 hits and 1 earned run, striking out 10 men. Nester also was stingy with hits but the locals were able to bunch their hits for 3 earned runs. This was one of the fastest games staged here this season, there being only one error charged to each team and the game was played in one hour and fifty minutes.

AMERICAN LEGION PAYS FINAL TRIBUTE TO WORLD WAR VETERAN.

William E. Grunewald, a veteran of the world war, passed away June 25, 1931, following a long period of ill health. Mr. Grunewald was born April 9th, 1888, in Goliad County, Texas. He entered the war on September 19, 1917, serving eighteen months and returned to Pamona, California, where he resided before coming to the valley five years ago, hoping to recover from the effects of shell shock incurred during the war. He patiently waited and hoped to regain his health again, but death came and relieved him of his suffering. He leaves to mourn, his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Grunewald, five brothers, Jack and Fred, of Los Angeles, California, Henry, of Hondo, Texas, Herman and Charlie, of Lancaster, California, two sisters, Mrs. A. C. Stanard, Pomona, California, Mrs. S. H. Bailey, Lancaster, California, and a wide circle of friends. Funeral services took place at the Baptist Church Saturday, at 3 P. M. the American Legion Post 311 and Rev. J. W. Swan, formerly of Hondo, Texas, conducting the same. Interment was at the Lancaster Cemetery with full military ritual. The Mumaw Undertaking establishment was in charge of arrangements. Beautiful music was rendered by Jane Ottosen, Jennie May and Elizabeth Haun, Erma Purdy, Kathleen and Evelyn Scates, Mrs. Elias Smith and Mrs. Charles Scates. Mrs. Scates was accompanist.

The above was taken from The Antelope Valley (California) Gazette. Deceased was well known here, having lived near Yancey for 16 years, and he was a member of Battery C of the 340th F. A. N. A. while in the war.

COLONIAL COVERINGS

"The Vice Squad"—Paramount's sensational expose of the secret operations of big city authorities in combating rackets, comes to the Colonial Theatre on Saturday next. Paul Lukas is the leading male role of this picture, and is seen as an outlawed member of Washington's diplomatic set who becomes ensnared in the life of the underworld of a big metropolitan center. Because of the lapse of his fortune he is compelled to gain a livelihood as a "stool pigeon." Kay Francis and Helen Johnson are the beautiful young women of the picture.

What is most certainly the cleverest display of brilliant acting that film audiences have been privileged to see in many months will be on parade at the Colonial Theatre, where "The Royal Family of Broadway" will open Sunday and Monday. Most of the splendid attributes of this production are found in the stirring craftsmanship of Fredric March, Ina Claire, Henrietta Crossman and Mary Brian. It depicts the home life of a leading family of American stage performers. "The Royal Family of Broadway" is rich in comedy, romance, pathos and drama. It is invested with sparkling glamor—it moves with the dazzling speed of a meteor.

Love and dancing lessons mix in an hilarious comedy situation that blends with straight romance in "Just a Gigolo," in which William Haines stars Thursday and Friday. The new picture presents Haines as a British nobleman who poses as a gigolo in an attempt to "test" the girl he plans to marry—and who gets a slap in the face that opens the gate to his life romance. The cast is a notable one including C. Aubrey Smith, Lillian Bond, Irene Purcell and others.

San Antonio business firms are using lots of advertising space to attract customers to their stores. People from this section would not go 80 miles just to see what was in the windows of those firms but with pictures and prices there is an appeal that will get a number of patrons from the field wherein those papers circulate. Added to this there are also thousands of circulars mailed to this town by San Antonio firms. What are our merchants doing? The Leader-News tells what they are doing. Some are telling the people what they have to sell and soliciting their trade. There is more reason than ever at the present to make a strong and aggressive campaign for trade. The merchants who have the goods and do nothing substantial to help sell them is just inviting outsiders to make his customers theirs.—Uvalde Leader-News.

HONDO, TEXAS, JULY 17, 1931

TEXAS AND TEXANS.

By
Will H. Mayes
"All Texans for All Texas"

Immense Road Program.

Figures compiled by the Federal Government show that the Texas State and local highway and bridge expenditures for the current year will reach a total of $66,000,000. Of this amount, $46,000,000 is for State road expenditures, an increase of about $4,500,000 over last year. Texas will receive $15,649,000 Federal aid for road building this year, compared with $5,578,000 in 1930. Texas employs 12,600 road workers regularly, many with teams. With $180,000 being spent every day in Texas for roads and bridges on the "pay-as-we-go plan," Texas is doing pretty well on its road construction program.

Legislative Blunders.

It does seem that by taking the precaution of having the bills passed on as to their constitutionality before their passage, either by the attorney general, the hired lawyers of the Senate and House, one of the legislative committees, some of the learned lawyer members of either body, the janitors of somebody else, the Texas legislature could have saved the expense of passing and printing some 56 local bills only to have them declared unconstitutional by the attorney general after all the expense had been incurred.

The attorney general very mildly says that these laws are "evasive, vague, illusory, arbitrary and a plain attempt to evade the constitutional inhibition" against passing bills under the guise of general laws, yet they got by all the lawyers hired and elected, in both branches of the legislature.

Bringing Them In.

Despite the worse than wasteful price of oil, 402 producing oil wells were brought in in Texas during the month of June. With oil selling at fair prices there would be no hard times talk in this State, even though farm crop products are selling below cost of production. With stabilized markets Texas would be rich beyond all dreams. The greatest need of the times is wise and honest statesmanship in every branch of government.

Sentimental Generosity.

Despite the fact that Ex-Confederate soldiers have nearly all "passed on" to where there will be no more wars, the pension fund in Texas continues to increase, until with the maximum tax levy of 7 cents for such pensions the deficit is rapidly approaching $1,300,000. This condition is due to increased allowances, liberality in determining who are entitled to pensions, and generosity in allowances to widows who have married soldiers since the war. Texas is now paying approximately $3,500,000 a year to pensioners, apparently a large sum to be paid 66 years after the war ended, considering also the small population of Texas in 1861-65.

Bus Mail Routes.

Recognition of the practical utility of bus lines is given by the Federal Government in awarding contracts to bus lines to haul first class mail in competition with the railways. At Del Rio, Uvalde and other Southern-Pacific points between Del Rio and San Antonio where there has been only a daily mail service, the bus line has been awarded a contract to carry mail once a day to supplement the train service, thus giving the towns a 12 to 15 hours earlier service than has been given on at least half of the first-class mail.

Courthouse Construction.

According to Country Progress, organ of the Texas County Judges and Commissioners, there is more courthouse construction under way and planned in this State than at any previous time. Some of these, like the Travis, Potter and Jefferson county structures, are in or around the $1,000,000 class. Liberty and Collingsworth counties are among those erecting buildings to cost less than $250,000.

Huge Texas Plant.

The Southern Alkali Corporation's $10,000,000 plant, to be erected at Corpus Christi, when running at full capacity will consume approximately 37,500,000 cubic feet of gas daily, 2,500 tons of salt, 2,500 tons of limestone and great quantities of sulphur, all of which are found in South Texas, according to a statement made by J. C. Kennedy, president of the Central and Southwest Utilities Company. Later, it is expected that millions of tons of Texas silica sand will be included in the raw materials consumed. Those who are in the watch tower predict more industrial development in Texas in the next ten years than in the past fifty years combined.

Texas Granite At Sabine Jetties.

According to the Llano News, machinery has been unloaded at Marble Falls with which granite is to be quarried for the jetty work at Sabine Pass. A half mile railroad spur has been built to the quarry. Large quantities of the Texas granite will be used on the vast construction work in building the Sabine port, which will be one of the best on the Texas coast.

Austin-San Antonio Road.

The Texas Highway Commission has been told that the Austin-San Antonio road is the worst in the State considering distance and travel on it—that it makes one seasick to ride over it, that the feeling is like riding a carnival roller coaster, that the curves are like a merry-go-round, that in places the tarviated portion is hardly wide enough for one car, that the 13 railroad crossings in 30 miles keeps one stopping, looking and listening most of the time, and that it is a disgrace to Texas and a reflection on the commission, as well as a menace to human life and safety. It is understood that the commission is to have its engineers look over this road again to see if all the allegations are true. Maybe it will be rebuilt some time—well, maybe.

"Passing" of the Horse.

Checks made by the State Highway Department show that there is a large decrease this year in the amount of highway travel, this being especially true of tourist travel, which has decreased fully 50 per cent.

On the Highway from San Marcos to Wimberly, a distance of 20 miles into a typical rural district, not a single horse-drawn vehicle passed during the four days and nights of the count, according to a report in the San Marcos Record.

Cotton Lessens Farm Values.

Statistics often reveal unpleasant, but stubborn facts. Census returns show that from 1920 to 1930 the Texas counties devoted most largely to cotton production suffered the largest decreases in land values, in some cases as much as 50 and 60 per cent. These have been considered Texas' richest lands. It is equally noticeable that where there has been largest diversification in farm products there have been largest increases in land values. There is a valuable lesson in this for every farmer and land owner.

Building Picking Up.

It is noticeable that the new-building activities in many sections of Texas. This is especially true as to the small cities. A large part of the building is residential. Decreases in cost of building material, ranging from 20 to 30 per cent in the last two years, and lowered rates of interest have been the principal reasons for stimulating building of homes at this time.

Granaries on Farms.

The Wellington Leader reports that the work of raising funds for the Fort Worth & Denver right of way through Gray county has been completed, right of way through Wheeler county has about all been secured, the funds for Childress county have been obtained, and beginning of construction work now depends largely on when Collingsworth county raises its quota.

Veteran Hospitals.

With 25 sites offered in Arkansas for the proposed $750,000 United States Veteran Hospital of 200 bed capacity, Texarkana feels that it has a fine chance of getting the institution. It is expected that the capacity of the Waco hospital will be increased from 300 to 600 beds.

HEARD AT THE GREEN TRIAL.

From the San Antonio Light reporters account of the trial of John L. Green, 17 year-old convicted murderer of Frank Kempf, we copy the following:

Green was on the witness stand at the time of the noon recess, and did not resume testimony. Instead both sides closed at 1:30 p. m., and Judge Wallace ordered the jury taken from the courtroom for an hour while the charge was being prepared.

Green changed his plea from not guilty to guilty at the opening of the morning session. He is charged, with Ernest Johnson, also a negro, with murdering Kempf.

Green was calm on the witness stand as he told of going to Kempf's home on the night of July 15 with Johnson and Ora Wilson Dillard, San Antonio negro, who has been charged as an accessory.

Denies Statement

Johnson struck Kempf with a club and Green then struck the dairyman, the defendant said.

He said he heard Kempf curse Johnson, and that it appeared that the two men were fighting.

He denied that part in his written statement to police, that he and the two others went to the Kempf dairy for the purpose of murder and robbery. They went there to collect some money which the Dillard woman claimed was owed her, Green said.

He was calm on the witness stand and chuckled once during testimony.

Green was preceded on the witness stand by his mother, Mrs. E. M. Looney, of El Paso, who said that Green is 17 years old.

Among the witnesses introduced during the state's testimony was John Davis, a Pearsall negro, who told of giving Johnson and Green a ride from San Antonio to Devine on the morning following the murder.

He also told of seeing them at a dance at the negro school house near which the body later was found.

W. J. Maltberger, of San Antonio police force, testified regarding the finding of Kempf's bloody automobile in San Antonio on June 16.

J. D. Wilson, 10-year-old brother of the Dillard woman, testified that he saw blood in Kempf's abandoned automobile when he went to fetch a purse for his sister on the morning after the slaying.

Raymond South, investigator for District Attorney, Walter Tynan of Bexar county, identified Green's statement which was read in court.

Watch, Knife Shown.

A watch and knife, taken from the murdered man and later found near the Dillard woman's home, were identified and introduced in evidence.

Better Breakfasts

IT was a grand and glorious breakfast—if she does say so, herself. And though the tick-tock registers only 8:30, Letty sings as she dries 'em. The little brown thrush has nothing on her. Letty has just served a Better Breakfast. She hates so-so breakfasts, and hers are oh! so, so much better. She admits it. Here are her menu and recipes. Do you agree with her?

Cold Fish Cakes Broiled Bacon
Toasted Buttered Finger Rolls
Hot Beverage

Wheat Cereal with Crushed Pineapple: Cook any light wheat cereal in a double boiler until well done. Serve hot with a spoonful of crushed pineapple in the center. Serve with cream.

Codfish Cakes: Make a white sauce of three-fourths tablespoon butter, three-fourths tablespoon flour and one-half cup milk. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Beat one egg slightly, add the hot sauce slowly, then mix thoroughly with the contents of one 10-ounce can of codfish cakes and let the mixture cool. Drop by spoonfuls into deep fat and fry a golden brown. This makes twelve cakes, and serves six persons.

Tony Williams, Natalia negro, and his wife, Eddie May Williams, told of seeing at three defendants at the June 19 dance at the Natalia school house.

Motive Questioned.

Green pleaded not guilty on the opening of the trial yesterday, but today changed his plea to guilty. Judge Lee Wallace of the Thirty-eight district court had the defendant repeat his plea. The court asked: "Have you been promised anything to change your plea?"

"No."

Judge Wallace asked: "Did anyone persuade you to change?"

Green said calmly: "No sir. I am pleading guilty because I am guilty."

"Do you realize that this may mean send you to the electric chair?"

"Yes sir."

The state then proceeded with testimony exactly as if the case were being contested.

Believed Sane.

Sheriff C. J. Schuehle of Medina county, and his deputy, J. B. Dawson, testified that in their opinion the defendant was sane.

Identification Told.

George Briscoe, who lives 400 yards from the Kempf farm, said that the elder Kempf informed him that Frank was missing, and that he started the search on June 16. He also told of viewing and identifying the body eight days later when it was found at a negro school house at Natalia.

The shoes and belt and gold teeth made identification positive, the witness said.

E. A. Schott of Devine also told of identifying the body.

Doctor Testifies

Dr. G. S. Woods of Devine, who examined the body, said that there was a two-inch fracture of the skull which might have been inflicted with either the mesquite club or iron bolt found in the Kempf yard.

Average Villareal told of finding the body in weeds near the Natalia negro school house on June 23—Raymond South, investigator for District Attorney Walter Tynan of Bexar county, was pressed into service as an interpreter during Villareal's testimony.

J. A. Robertson, another neighbor of Kempf, told of finding an iron bar, identified as that used in the murder, in Kempf's yard on the day following the murder.

ROUND ABOUT THE HOME

SOME TESTED RECIPES.

Arranged by Domestic Science
Department C. I. A.

Salads for the hot summer months have been featured in the menus prepared by the household arts department of the College of Industrial Arts because they are refreshing and appetizing. Many varieties may be made and are easily prepared. The frozen ones may be packed early and then ready to serve may be put together with little or no trouble. Salads are more appetizing if they are not fussed or handled a great deal; they should be simple and yet attractive. Some of the summer salads are:

DATE AND ALMOND SALAD: Put one package of seeded dates and one cupful of salted almonds through the meat grinder. Mix with boiled dressing. Top with lettuce leaves as a foundation in mound-like shapes and cover them with shredded cocoanut.

FROZEN FRUIT SALAD: Cut, drain and squeeze the juice out of 1 large can of sliced pineapple (cut in small cubes), 1 pound of seeded malaga grapes and 1 can Royal Ann cherries (seeded) and 1 pint maraschino cherries (diced). Put one pint of mayonnaise on a small platter and add two small rolls of cheese, mixing well. Add 1 quart double cream, whipped and then the fruit and mix well. Pack in a mould and be sure that the mold is lined with waxed paper. Pack in salt and ice and let stand five or six hours. Serve with lettuce.

FROZEN ROQUEFORT SALAD: Press one third pound of roquefort cheese through a sieve and work into it a teaspoonful of vinegar, two table-spoons of cream cheese and a table-spoon of finely mixed cherries. Season with paprika and fold in a cup of whipped cream and one of finely chopped cabbage. Pack in ice and salt for four hours.

PEAR GLACE: Rub a cake of cream cheese to a smooth paste and add a cupful of currant jelly which has been whipped and one tablespoon of lemon juice. Season slightly with salt and paprika and fold in a cupful of stiffly whipped cream. Pack in ice and serve one tablespoon in half of chilled pears. Garnish with lettuce leaves.

FROZEN APRICOT SALAD: Heat in a double boiler 1/4 cup each of apricot and orange juice, two table-spoons of lemon juice and a pinch of salt. Beat two egg yolks with half a cup of sugar and stir in the hot juices; cook over hot water until thick and smooth. Cool and fold in the stiffly beaten egg whites and one cup of whipped cream and 1 1/2 cup apricots cut in quarters. Pack in ice and salt for four hours. Serve on a lettuce leaf.

COLD DESSERTS FOR HOT DAYS.

By Betty Barclay.

When the mercury is flirting with the top of the thermometer one naturally thinks of cooling drinks, ice cream, crisp salads and cold puddings or whips.

There is a tendency which is quite excusable on the part of the average housewife to prepare a meal with as little effort as possible. Perhaps she would like to serve a cold dinner, but in most cases the men of the house insist very strongly upon a hot meal. They cannot quite convince themselves that good old fashioned meat and potatoes should be eliminated at the main meal of the day.

There is no particular reason, how-

THE GOLDEN RULE OF THREE

Three things to be—pure, just and honest.
Three things to govern—temper, tongue and conduct.
Three things to live—courage, affection and gentleness.
Three things to love—the wise, the virtuous and the innocent.
Three things to commend—thrift, industry and promptness.
Three things about which to think—life, death and eternity.
Three things to despise—cruelty, arrogance and ingratitude.
Three things to admire—dignity, gracefulness and intellectual power.
Three things to cherish—the true, the beautiful and the good.
Three things for which to fight—honor, home and country.
Three things to attain—goodness of heart, integrity of purpose and cheerfulness of disposition.
Three things to give—alms to the needy, comfort to the sad and appreciation to the worthy.
Three things to desire—the blessing of God, an approving conscience and the fellowship of the good.
Three things for which to work—a trained mind, a skilled hand and a regulated heart.
Three things for which to hope—a haven of peace, a robe of righteousness and the crown of life.

each salad dish with crisp lettuce leaves. Place on the lettuce a slice of pineapple and top this with three prunes stuffed with marshmallows. Garnish with cheese balls and serve with mayonnaise. The prunes should be thoroughly cooked but firm in shape.

ever, why any woman should spend the entire afternoon in the heat, baking pies or puddings for dessert. A cold dessert, if properly made, will be appreciated by any normal man or woman. As for the children, they always appreciate a dessert of this kind no matter what time of the year it is served.

Try to have this cold dessert a healthful and well-balanced one. A pudding, whip, or cream, containing milk, sugar and fruit, furnishes plenty of those health-giving vitamins.

Incidentally, through a dessert of this kind many a mother has learned how to furnish her children with the milk which they may refuse to drink in the form of plain milk. As milk time the manufacturing industries of the State are at work on a five year plan to stimulate patronage of Texas-made products, to build up more and greater industries, to quicken Texas trade. The Centennial movement will go hand in hand with this worthy effort. If Texas would attract the outside business world it must show a Texas interest in enterprises beyond the State, and so, it should and doubtless will give all possible aid to the National-George Washington Tercentenary of 1932 and to the Chicago "Century of Progress" celebration of 1933. In fact Texas has reached that point in its own development where it should concern itself in all constructive movements of the entire Nation. This State can not live to itself any more than a newspaper or an individual and hold aloof from surrounding activities and succeed. Progress is now achieved by getting together and sticking together.

All Can Help

Every newspaper in Texas, every individual in the State, can help in the great forward-looking movements looking to the State's greatest development. Sometimes we get the idea that because we can not accomplish great things, we need not try anything—that our small efforts are hardly worth while. I may not be able to do much individually. I could not build a city alone or even a small village industry. What I write may make little impression upon the six million people of Texas, but what the six million people of Texas working together can accomplish would be beyond the estimation or even the dream of the people themselves. All that is needed to "Build Texas" is the spirit of working together which the Texas press has determined to try to build up.

Production and Prices

Retail prices of products need to be brought to conform more closely to prices obtained at places of production. Woolen and cotton manufactured goods are admittedly too high at the prices now being paid for wool and cotton to the producers. Manufacturers and dealers agree to this, but say that costs of production and distribution are such that they can not sell at less prices and continue in business. Many farm products are now so low at the farms that they are allowed to rot in the fields, while multiplied thousands throughout the world are suffering for food, and retail store prices remain high. Again the reason for this anomalous condition is given as high cost of distribution, brought about by transportation charges, expense and profits of middle-men, sales wages, rents, delivery and many other items. Something needs to be done to eliminate the immense waste between producers and consumers, and it is an economic problem that will require the best thought of the country.

Texas Yields Immense

The Texas wheat crop may reach 45,000,000 or 50,000,000 bushels. The oat crop will be more than twice as large. Vegetable and fruit crops are taxing the car capacity of the railroads and the truck lines and in many places are being left in the fields. The finest alfalfa and other hays are in some places being left unharvested because of low prices. Cattle, sheep and goats are not bringing enough returns for the pasturage. What does it all mean? It means at least this for the small producer. He must get back as far as possible and as rapidly as he can to living at home, to producing the things that will help him and his family to live best with the least cash outlay. He must arrange to store and hold his products until there is a market for them at fair prices. He must put away for his own use enough for the inevitable "rainy day." At present prices the farmer, if he had the money available, could afford to buy and hold almost every kind of farm product, since he can buy in the open market cheaper than he can grow most products. Prices are sure to advance and those who can hold their crops will profit by the holding.

Irrigation Development

There is hardly a section of Texas in which there is not some irrigation development project under way or contemplated. Some of these are on immense scales and will bring into regular and large production vast areas of country. Others are small enterprises of individuals and communities. In every case there will result more regular and larger and consequently more profitable returns per acre, where there is proper diversification, cultivation and marketing. All of the reservoirs are to be stocked with fish and in the years to come fish are to become a staple table commodity of Texas people rather than an occasional luxury. Irrigation and water storage will do much for better living in Texas, but there is likely to be much change in farming methods to which the people will have to adapt themselves.

Industrial Texas

THE TEXAS WEEKLY calls attention to one rapidly developing Texas industry to which most of us have given little thought. There are 35 dress factories of appreciable size operating in Texas and a number of smaller ones. They have a combined total of 3,600 machines, an investment of around a half million dollars, 936,000 dozen dresses annually, or exclusive of buildings, capacity of 11,232,000 dresses that sell at from $1.00 to $10.75 each. These are mostly in the cities, but there is no reason why a dress factory may not be operated just as advantageously in any small town where factory and living conditions are good. The process of making dresses from the fabrics increases values about 120 per cent, which goes to Texas labor and Texas capital.

CRIMINAL NEGLIGENCE—JUTE AND COTTON.

"Charity begins at home." If this is true then it is not charity for a man to leave his family in distress while he takes his earning and gives them to other people. This is criminal negligence.

Neither is it charity if a man feed and clothe a part of his family well, and leave a part uncared for. This would also be criminal negligence.

Likewise Uncle Sam is guilty of criminal negligence when he goes off and buys the jute of English people and leaves his own people with a surplus cotton unsold.

Likewise, it is criminal negligence when Uncle Sam and our congress in-dorse and arrange a money system that supplies plenty of money to big speculators, and makes no provision for his own workers and producers to get comfortable wages and prices for their own benefits.

It is likewise criminal negligence when Uncle Sam and our congress provide a protective tariff so that the benefits of good prices and good wages can come to manufacturers and their agents, and leave the laborers and producers of the raw material on the farms, unprotected in their wages and prices.

Mr. Hoover says "you cannot legislate prosperity into a country." In saying this Mr. Hoover is dispensing the doctrine of criminal negligence. He knows that congress has legislated prosperity into big money lenders, and big oil and utility corporations. He knows that congress in years past, has legislated prosperity into the manufacturers of the North and East.

He knows also that prosperity cannot come anywhere without a proper distribution of money. He knows that congress can legislate money by giving them proper prices for their labor, their crops and animals.

Mr. T. N. Thurmond, a cotton dealer of Shreveport, La., has written a series of articles dealing with the cotton and jute trade. He seems to be posted on his subjects. He bears out the idea that Mr. Hoover and our congress are disloyal to our people, and are guilty of criminal negligence when they do not legislate against the English free shipment of one billion pounds of jute into the United States annually, thereby reducing the price of our cotton at least $50.00 per bale.

Mr. Thurmond says if this free jute shipment be prevented the United States could, and would use two or three million bales more of cotton than it now uses, and by using this cotton at home, instead of English jute, the so-called "carry over" of cotton would be eliminated, and the price of cotton would consequently advance at least $50.00 per bale.

What criminal negligence it is for our congress to refuse to prohibit this jute in favor of the increased use of cotton for the benefit of farmers! For many years congress has sat still and allowed England to pursue this policy of pauperizing the cotton producers of the United States. Such negligence on the part of our congress is beyond intelligent explanation.

Our congress pretends to favor home industries by protecting American manufacturers, and then it turns right around and lets in free, enough jute for bagging and sacks to depress the price of American cotton $50.00 per bale, and this has been going on for over 50 years. The whole transaction is an outrage on the American people, and they should arise and demand congress to prevent it.

Consumers buy in protected markets and they sell their raw material in open markets. This will bankrupt any set of farmers in any nation of the world, and that is where we are today.

P. A. SPAIN,

Many of the Lespedezas make good hay provided the crop is cut long before the seed is ripe. Unless the season is very d.v., there will be enough seed on the second growth to reseed the field. To delay cutting until most of the seed is ripe results in inferior hay. There is no reason, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture, why Lespedeza should not become a standard hay on the southern markets.

CASTROVILLE, TEXAS, TUESDAY, JULY 14, 1931

UPPER QUIHI NOTES. DIED.

A shadow of gloom was cast over our town on July 3rd, when the sad news was spread that one of LaCoste's old residents, Miss Angeline Burger, died at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Gross, at 8:45 P. M. July 3, 1931, following an illness of five weeks duration.

Miss Burger was born at Weidelsheim Alsace on August 1st, 1851, and had therefore attained the age of 79 years, 11 months and 3 days at the time of her demise. She came to this country with her parents in 1852 and settled at the Medina a few miles west of Lacoste, where she continued to live until in 1911 she moved to LaCoste where she lived up to the time of her death. The past seven years she lived with Mr. and Mrs. R. Gross. She is survived by one sister, Mrs. R. Gross, 9 nieces, namely Misses Annie Gross and Mary Burger, Mesdames John Carle, C. H. Fous, Joe E. Tschirhart, E. W. Balzen, Terese Obetz, Willie Lamon and Robert Grossenbacher; 12 nephews, Messrs. Joe, Henry, Louis and Jno. Gross, Willie, Henry, Hubert, Anton, George, John, August and Adolph Burger, to mourn her demise; 3 brothers, Louis, Hubert and Joseph preceded her in death.

Grapefruit Plentiful

OWING to a big crop of Florida grapefruit this year, there has been a sharp decline in the price of fresh fruit. An abundance of excellent canned grapefruit will also be available this year at reasonable prices for the same reason.

One grapefruit grower whose orchards are close to the Gulf claims that the salt breezes put that certain tang into the flavor of the fruit which makes it distinctive. The canned product retains this tang and also the wealth of mineral and vitamin content that is in grapefruit, because it is sun-ripened, picked and packed when fully mature.

New Tested Recipes

Here is a formula for a delicious Sunday morning cocktail, quickly prepared with canned grapefruit juice; and another for an excellent dinner salad which is gay in color:

Prune and Grapefruit Cocktail: Cut prunes from their pits and stew. Use one cup of stewed prune pulp and add the contents of a No. 2 can of grapefruit hearts and one-half cup of orange pulp and juice. Add four tablespoons of confectioner's sugar, if you prefer a sweet cocktail. This serves eight persons.

Grapefruit and Grape Salad: Drain and chill one No. 2 can of grapefruit and one cup of seeded white grapes. Make a French dressing, using grapefruit juice instead of vinegar. Arrange the fruit on lettuce hearts and pour over the dressing. Garnish each salad with strips of pimiento and a ring of green pepper. This serves eight persons.*
